Daily Rosary

October is devoted to Praying the Rosary.

The Rosary is said

Monday through Saturday mornings at 7:30 a.m.

All are welcome to come and pray.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear members of the Sacred Heart Altar Society,

Some four hundred years ago, there was a Ukrainian Catholic Bishop (St. Josaphat, feast day November 12th) who, doing what bishops do, would annually visit the parishes of his diocese to observe the faith of the flock. In each parish he was greeted by priests and parishioners eager to tell him of their devotion to the Catholic Faith and their parish. He would listen patiently & respectfully and then tell them, "take me to see your church, the shine of the floor and the condition of the altar cloths will tell me even more than your words."

How proudly we could show our little church to St. Josaphat and add the explanation that all of this is done by the loving hands of parishioners who have jobs, families to raise, houses to be cleaned and Saturday marketing but, because they truly love their faith and church take the time to come here and perform their labor of love and devotion.

May I publicly acknowledge and thank the volunteer crews who make our church sparkle and shine by their service each Saturday morning.

If you would like to commit to one of our five "cleaning crews" please give Diana, the parish secretary (432-0655) a call. It takes about an hour, one Saturday @ 9:30 a.m. every other month (so, like 6 times a year). It's a great mother/daughter volunteer opportunity.

Again, on behalf of all the parishioners, thank you Altar Society for keeping our beautiful church so proudly CLEAN!

St. Gertrude (1256-1301)
 Virgin (Patroness of the West Indies)
 Feast day-November 16.
 The most important thing we know about Saint Gertrude is that she loved God and was very aware of God's love for her. When she was five years old, Gertrude was placed in the care of the Benedictine nuns at Helfta, in Germany. Under the leadership of a holy abbess also named Gertrude, their monastery was a center of holiness and intellectual activity. Saint Mechtildis was put in charge of the young girl.

Gertrude became a charming person who loved to study. Later Gertrude herself became a nun at Helfta and eventually was made abbess. When she was 26, Gertrude began having deep mystical experiences; she would be so caught up in God that she became unaware of those around her. She also had the gift of miracles. Her life from that point on revolved around the study of Scripture, prayer, spiritual reading, and the liturgy of the Church. She copied and translated many books and wrote her own in Latin. Besides being a theologian, Gertrude was known for her charity and humility.

Gertrude's holiness flowed in part from her great devotion to the Sacred Heart, the symbol of Jesus' love for the human race. Gertrude carried her love for Christ to others through the prayers that she wrote and through the journal of her mystical experiences.

Gertrude showed "tender sympathy towards the souls in purgatory" and urged prayers for them. She is therefore invoked for suffering souls in purgatory. The following prayer is attributed to St. Gertrude:

Eternal Father, I offer You the most precious blood of thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, for those in my own home and in my family. Amen.

Perhaps for that reason, her name has been attached to a prayer that, according to a legend of uncertain origin and date (neither are found in the Revelations of Saint Gertrude the Great), Christ promised to release a thousand souls from purgatory each time it was said; despite the fact that practices relative to alleged promises to free one or more souls from purgatory by the recitation of some prayer were prohibited by Pope Leo XIII.

*O Mary conceived without sin,
 Pray us who have recourse to thee.*

Smile Corner

As I get older, I realize:

"I love asking kids what they want to be when they grow up because I'm still looking for ideas."

(More "realizations" will follow in the coming weeks.)
